WHEREAS Minnesota has always been a diverse state with a rich and evolving culture, created by indigenous people, built by immigrants, working people, people of color, women, people of different faiths, sexual orientations, languages, incomes, ethnicities, abilities, and ages; and

WHEREAS our differences are the source of our strength; and

WHEREAS, the state's legacies of gender, racial, economic, and geographic inequality and injustice affect some of us more than others, but affect all of us in our own, often painful, ways; and

WHEREAS, our state needs to transform its institutions to address these disparities as well as rise to the economic, environmental, demographic, and civil rights challenges of the future; and

WHEREAS, our challenges may be great, our imagination, fighting spirit, and love for Minnesota is even greater,

BE IT RESOLVED that the Republican Party will fight gender oppression and racial injustice, and will put the needs and values of people ahead of the interests of powerful corporations.
