

Leopold and Agriculture

Resilience and Sustainability in “Working Landscapes”

Saturday, March 16, 2019 9:00 am to 4:00 pm

Free day-long conference hosted by the Leopold Landscape Alliance at Southeast Iowa Community College in West Burlington, Iowa

Please Pre-register by March 6, 2019 as space is limited.

Conference Lunch available for $10.

To pre-register go to: www.leopoldalliance.org

No computer? call Dave Riley at 319-759-8724.

A Few Program Highlights: 10 speakers from 5 states

---

Wildly Successful Farming: The Leopold Land Ethic and Today's Ecological Agrarians,
Brian DeVore, Editor, Land Stewardship Project Letter

The Farmer as Conservationist – Leopold and Agriculture, Curt Meine, Adj. Prof., U of WI, Sr. Fellow ALF

Prairie Strips – What are They and How Do They Work, Tim Youngquist, Farmer Liaison, Strips Project, Agronomy, ISU, Ames, IA

Grazing Panel with Francis Thicke, Owner Radiance Dairy, Fairfield, Iowa

When Farm is Not a Four-Letter Word Suzan Erem, President, SILT, Sustainable Iowa Land Trust